

Autumn Poems P4MM

Hot chocolate

Warm Fires

A very big blanket

A comfy sofa

A big TV

A pillow

And don't forget the remote

Finally hop into bed and snuggle up.

In the Autumn

The leaves change

Colour like brown

Turning to green, yellow

And orange.

Bright mornings

Chilly, dark nights

Bright yellow days

Children flying kites

Leaves falling from the tree

Landing on a chestnut path

Misty mornings

Foggy nights

Bright evenings

Birds tweeting

Hedgehogs rustling in the leaves

I love Autumn time.

By Jack

Leaves are falling
Red, yellow and green
Birds migrating
Trees are getting clean
Conkers are falling
Everyone is dreaming ...
It is the best time of year.

By Kar Kay

Leaves falling
Turning gold and yellow as a buttercup
Children flying kites
You can feel the breeze in your hair.
Bright mornings
Breezy nights
Gleaming days
Warm hot water bottles
Autumn is great!

By Ellie

Crunching leaves of the trees
Turning gold, orange and yellow.
Sleepy trees losing their leaves
Cold nights
Fires are lit, warming up
Through the night
Wind gushing at the window Warms you up through the night
Get back to bed – have a good night
Sleep tight!

By Alex

By Lucy

By Rory

