

P3 have been doing lots of work on Roald Dahl's story 'The Twits'.

These are some of the children's comments and opinions of the story.

The Twits is a really good story book and it about two people who are very mean and they play tricks on each other. The part I liked the most was where four boys got stuck up the Big Dead Tree with Hughtight Glue on it.

Harrison

The story is very good and funny for kids like me because in the story, Mr Twit and Mrs Twit end up with no heads, no tummies and no legs.

Cianan

It was fabulously funny and enjoyable, and you should really read it.

Mia

I thought the book was funny because the Twits played some really, really funny tricks, for example, when Mrs Twit put her glass eye in Mr Twit's beer and when Mr Twit put a frog in Mrs Twit's bed – that was the best trick.

I like the bit when Mr Twit ate the worms. I like Mr and Mrs Twit. I like writing about Mr and Mrs Twit.

Daniil

I liked the bit when Mr Twit tied Mrs Twit to the balloon – that was funny. And then she went flying in the air and I enjoyed it.

Nicole

I thought the story was enjoyable and funny. My favourite trick was the frog trick. It was my favourite because Mrs Twit screamed her head off. I loved the 'wormy' spaghetti! That one was funny!

Jimmy

I think the story was excellent because Mr and Mrs Twit got stuck on their heads!
