

The children in P4DH have been reading

'The Sea Piper'

by Helen Cresswell.

These are some of their comments on the story.

I think the story was very interesting because of the Sea Piper – because he was invisible. When all of the shrimps were gone everyone went to Lower Herring except for Davy and Fancy Garter. My favourite part of the story was when the shrimps came back because that part was happy for the people of Little Shrimpton.

My favourite bit is where Harriet went to make a deal with the Sea Piper. The deal was that if the Sea Piper brought the shrimps back, Harriet would give him all the seagulls. Harriet got moved to Lower Herring by her mum and dad so she wouldn't starve. It is a good story.

Civan

The most fantastic part in the story is when Harriet talks to the Sea Piper because it is where all the shrimps come back to Little Shrimpton. I also like it when Harriet goes to live with Aunt Lavinia.

Bradley

I thought 'The Sea Piper' was very interesting and every bit of it was exciting. My favourite bit was when the Sea Piper appeared on the beach. I don't want to tell you too much or I will spoil the story! It's absolutely amazing – just try it! Go to the library and pick it up...

Kate

I liked the part where Harriet went to her aunt's, collected shells and drew them. On the beach, she saw a mysterious figure. The mysterious figure took the shrimps.

Freya

The Sea Piper is an absolutely amazing story. My favourite bit is where Harriet met the Sea Piper and had a conversation about getting the shrimps back. The Sea Piper got to keep the seagulls for company on his journeys. I think everybody who reads it will be impressed.
